NATIONAL LEAGUE 2021

From 2021 the national and regional football league structures will align to create one unified season.

Clubs will qualify on a yearly basis to compete in the national competition.

For the men's competition clubs will qualify from Northern, Central and South Island leagues.

For the women's competition, four club teams will qualify from the northern region, joined by regional federation sides from the rest of the country.

THIS IS A COMPETITION FOR PLAYERS

More players playing meaningful matches at a younger age giving them the best opportunity to build a career in the game

THIS IS A COMPETITION FOR CLUBS

A genuinely open competition structure where well-run clubs produce successful teams that can achieve regionally, nationally and internationally

THIS IS A COMPETITION FOR FANS

Fans can support their local team throughout a full season, with regional rivalries having national significance
